ORDINATION DAY AT THE SEMINARY

Three From Diocese of Virginia Ordained to Priesthood

NINETY-FIFTH CLOSING

Sermon Preached by Rev. Robert E. Lee Strider, of Wheeling, W. Va., Impressive Services.

The Ordination Service which always follows the close of the Episcopal Theological Seminary was held in the chapel of that institution near this city at 11 o'clock this morning. The bishops, clergy and those who were ordained vested in Prayer Hall, and marched in procession to the chapel, and took their seats in the choir. After the processional hymn was sung, Bishop Brown read a few appropriate prayers, at the conclusion of which the sermon was preached by the Rev. Robert E. Lee Strider, rector of St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, West Va.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the persons to be ordained took their position in the part of the chancel outside of the communion rails. These were William Brayshaw, of West Virginia, presented by his brother, Rev. Lede L. Brayshaw to Bishop Gravatt for the diaconate, and J. Keith Marshall Lee of the diocese of Virginia, presented by his father to Bishop Brown, also for the diaconate.

Those ordained to the priesthood were all of the diocese of Virginia as follows: The Rev. John Fleming Wren Field presented by the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, and the Revs. Robert W. Lewis and Edward H. Vogt, both presented by the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, and the Revs. Robert W. Lewis and Edward H. Vogt, both presented by the Rev. Professor Wallis.

These were all ordained by Bishop Brown, while J. Keith Marshall Lee was also ordained by Bishop Brown, and William Brayshaw, by Bishop Gravatt, Bishops Tucker and Thompson of Southern Virginia, were in the chancel and took part in the impressive service.

The Commencement Exercises incident to the close of the 95th Session of the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city, took place yesterday in the Seminary Chapel at 10 o'clock, Bishop Brown, the newly elected president of the Seminary, in succession to Bishop Gibson lately deceased together with the professors and students vested in their academic robes marched from Prayer Hall to the chapel and took their appointed places in the choir. Bishop Brown opened the exercises with a hymn and prayers. After this he announced the promotions from the junior to the middle class and from the middle class to the senior class for next session. The graduates next received their diplomas as follows: Paul Delafield Bowden, B. S., of the diocese of West Texas, William Brayshaw, of West Virginia, Robert Alexander Brown, of New Jersey, John Fleming Wren Feild, of Virginia, Paul Lamkin Powles, B. A., of the diocese of Maryland, and Benjamin Richardson Roller, B. A., of the diocese of West Virginia. Thre degree of Bachelor in Divinity was conferred upon the Rev. Carleton Bearnwell, B. A., of Anniston, Ala., the Rev. William G. McDowell, Jr., B. A., and the Rev. Wilfred Everard Roach, M. A., rector of Emmanuel and Trinity Parishes, Fauquier Co., Va. The following members of the graduating class having attained the required standard in all departments of Seminary work, were recommended to the Board of Trustees for the degree of Bachelor in Divinity to be given after doing certain specified work and receiving ordination to the priesthood: Paul Delafield Bowden, B. S., John Fleming Wren Feild, Paul Lamkin Powles, B. A., and Benjamin R. Roller. Graduating essays, two in number, were then read as follows: "The Underlying Causes of the Oxford Movement" by Paul Lamkin Powles, B. A., and "The Fatherhood of God" by Paul D. Bowden, B. S.,

An address was then given by the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, of St. James' Church, Richmond, Va., to the graduating class.

The President, Bishop Brown, then declared the session of 1918-1919 closed with appropriate devotions.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Society followed shortly after the conclusion of the commencement exercises with Dr. Wm. M. Dame, of Baltimore, Md., Vice President of the Society in the chair. The present graduating class was received by Dr. Dame, the alumni all standing. The Rt. Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, Bishop of Southern Virginia, was elected president in succession to the late Bishop Peterkin. The essay was read before the Alumni Society by the Rev. W. Russell Bowie, D. D., rector of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, Va., his subject being, "How can the Church be best prepared for the problems arising from the war." Memorial notices of the late Bishop Randolph, Southern Virginia, the late Rev. Frank Page, D. D., of Fairfax, Va., and the late Rev. J. Thompson Cole, of Philadelphia, Pa., were then read, that of Bishop Randoph by the Rev. A. B. Kinsolving, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., that of Dr. Page by the Rev. P. P. Phillips, D. D., of St Paul's Church, Alexandria, Va., and that of the Rev. J. T. Cole, by the Rev. Kersey, J. Hammond, of Culpeper, Va. The Alumni then adjourned to the Seminary refectory for the annual dinner where after dinner speeches were made on the great questions arising from th late war in relation to the Church and Christian relations with present day issues. The toastmaster was the Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin, D. D., of Rochester, N. Y.

Among the speakers were the Rev. Robert Nelson and the Rev. Theodore Sidgwick, of New York City.

On Wednesday night the annual service and sermon of the Students' Missionary Society took place at eight o'clock in the chapel. The preacher was the Rev. Theodore Sidgwick, of Calvary Church, New York City. It was a wonderful presentation of the character of true missionary work necessary for the world of today. There was a large attendance of alumni and friends at the Seminary.

THE BUTTONS ARE HERE

Supply of Service Pins for Men Who Have Registered by the War Camp Community Service

Upwards of two hundred men who have been discharged from the service have called at the W. C. C. S. Headquarters and registered, and all but a few of these received a handsome silver pin or button as an insignia of service and those who did not receive the pin at the time of registering may do so now by calling at the office. There are many of our returned boys who have not registered as yet but it is requested that those who have not done so will call at the W. C. C. S. building as soon as convenient for the purpose, as it is the desire of the local committee and the members of the Red Cross to have a complete list to include every soldier, sailor or marine in city and country, who was enlisted, drafted, or in any inducted into the service whether in camp in the United States or overseas, but is now discharged. There are many reasons for their wish to have this complete list as the interest of the entire community is centered on every one and prove our interest in the best possible outcome for his welfare. The Alexandria W. C. C. S. Club is established and maintained in its completeness for the enjoyment of all service men and we want all to avail themselves of its facilities.

I. W. W.'S BUSY IN WHEAT BELT

Five Agitators Summarily Arrested to Curb Trouble at Source

Kansas City, Mo., June 13.—Five men are under arrest at Hutchinson, Kansas, on a charge of "fomenting revolution," and it is believed by the Federal authorities that they are members of the Industrial Workers of the World.

"The arrests," said Fred Robertson, United States District Attorney for Kansas, "followed the first reports of the appearance of I. W. W. agitators in the Kansas wheat belt and their efforts to organize the harvesters We are not going to waste a minute with these trouble-makers."

Other arrests are expected, as the Federal authorities believe many organizers of the I. W. W. are at work in the grain belt of Kansas.

PUPILS TAKE PART IN CLASS EXERCISES

Playet Feature of Program At St. Mary's Academy Last Night

ADDRESSES DELIVERED

Rev. Louis Smet, Dr. Pace, Vice Rector of Catholic University Speakers. —Class and Teachers Complimented.

Those attending programs given by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy have learned to expect something above the average but the capacity audience that filled the assembly hall last evening unanimously proclaimed "Class Night Exercises of 1919" to be superior to any program of its kind heretofore given.

The musical selections on piano and violins were excellently chosen and rendered. The vocal numbers were splendid. The rendition of Rigoletto was the subject of much favorable comment by musicians present.

The class playlet, "Every Fourth Academic" arranged for the occasion by the graduates of "1919" was the feature of the evening. It was written to portray the trials and triumphs the grey days and gold of every Academic's four years striving for her diploma. There was humor and pathos and final triumph bearing out the splendid lesson that the goal was well worth the striving. Eight of the graduates played the roles with efficiency surprising in amateurs.

Miss Kitty Crilly as salutatorian and Miss Reginn Funnon as Gifforian deserved the splendid applause that greeted their numbers.

Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's in his closing remarks complimented pupils and teachers on the splendid success of the evening.

He was followed by Rev. Dr. Pace Vice-rector of the Catholic University to whom the paylet appealed with special interest, for to quote the Rev Doctor in my work as Clive-rector I found muself portrayed by Miss Faculty-Expectations, Miss Examination, and at times almost touched to tears at parts of this simple little playlet. I wondered if the 'Academics' under me had suffered at my hands more than they should have suffered' He too complimented the class of "1919". Present also in the audience were Very Rev. Robert Skinner, C. P. president of St. Paul's College, Brookland, D. C., Very Rev. Geo Dougherty, Rector of the Catholic University and Rev. F. Rohr of Brooklyn, N. Y.

MORE THAN 3,000 ATTEND SONG FEST

Staged Last Night in Christ Church Yard For Soldiers

K. OF C. CELEBRATION

Exercises at Lyceum Hall Tonight.—Masons Will Hold Celebration To-Morrow Night.

More than 3,000 persons last night attended the community sing given in Christ Church yard for the soldiers, sailors and marines in connection with the jubilee singing.

Hundreds stood on the sidewalk at either end of the church and enjoyed the song fest.

The singing was led by Herbert Wall with Miss McKea of Washington. A large number of school children stood beside the platform and joined in as also did many of those in the audience. Old time, melodies, camp songs and hymns were sung.

At the conclusion of the singing the soldiers in attendance and others were served refreshments by the local chapter of the American Red Cross.

The program for tonight provides for a reception and entertainment at the Lyceum hall under the auspices of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus.

It is known as K. of C. night and all soldiers, whether or not they are members of the order, sailors and marines and members of their families and relatives are invited. The program will begin at 8 o'clock and at its conclusion refreshments will be served.

Tomorrow night will be Masonic night. Every soldier, sailor and marine is extended a cordial invitation to attend whether or not they are Masons. The reception will be held in the Masonic Temple and begin at 8 o'clock. A special program has been prepared for the occasion.

At St. Mary's Catholic Church this morning a memorial mass was celebrated for the six members of St. Mary's Catholic Church who died in the service. Rev. Louis Smet, pastor, was the celebrant and a number of uniformed men attended as did members of their families and others.

ARE YOU SUPERSTITIOUS? THEN BEWARE, FOR TODAY IS FRIDAY, THIRTEENTH.

Watch your step.

Today is Friday, the 13th.

All manner of things that have evil effects are forecast for today, and it is a brave person, indeed, that begins any kind of a new venture on this day.

Breaking a mirror, walking under a ladder, having a black cat cross your path, permitting a lamp post to come between you and any one walking with you, and other things which for years have been the height of ill luck to the superstitious, pale into insignificance, compared with Friday the 13th.

BUT—

It's all foolishness.

Worse things have happened on lots of other days.

ATTENTION!

To the boys in khaki.

All soldiers, sailors and marines, who saw service at home or abroad are cordially invited to the Masonic Welcome at the Masonic Temple, Saturday, night June 14th at 8 p. m.

This will be an open meeting to all soldiers, sailors and marines who are not Masons as well as to those who are Masons.

All other members of the fraternity are invited to be present to welcome our heroes.

A few speeches, a lot of music, plenty of refreshments.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter, Barbara Vaughn, who departed this life six months ago, December 13th, 1918.

The rolling streams of life roll on,
But still the vacant chair,
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of one who once sat there

The flowers we lay upon her grave
May wither and decay,
But the love we bore for her,
Will never fade away.

Gone from life, yes gone forever,
Tear dimmed eyes shall look in vain
Then we'll meet our love again
By your bedside we sat and watched you.
Pass from life to yonder blissful shore,
Now we'll wait and trust in Jesus
Till we meet to part no more.

GRAND JURY PROBE

As might have been expected, the grand jury chargel with investigating the advent of a carnival company into Alexandria has reported "that they find no direct evidence upon which they could bring in any indictments in connection with the matter."

The carnival has been the main theme of conversation in Alexandria during the present week. A large percentage of the community has enjoyed the different features of the exhibition, while the younger generation has been enthused as they only are upon the appearance of a circus or anything upon the line of such performances.

The object of bringing a carnival to Alexandria in connection with other numbers on the program of Welcome Home Week was conceived in honesty by certain representative citizens who acted upon the best motives. If they made a mistake it was of the head, not the heart, and the many good people who entered their protests acted upon their unquestioned rights.

But the week the carnival will be among us is nearly spent. Like the Arabs, the company will fold its tents and depart ere the church bells sound next Sunday morning.

If it was a mistake to mingle the carnival with our Welcome Home festivities, it is not the first act of thoughtlessness which had been committed in Alexandria. The Gazette has never had much faith in brass band blowouts designed to aid in increasing the city's commercial importance, but all have their opinions, and upon the present occasion a week's festivities without a carnival was regarded by many as Hamlet minus Hamlet.

Others, however, equally as practicable, fail to realize that such a feature is the sine qua non of such an occasion. In the language of scripture, Let each be fully persuaded in his own mind.

It is unfortunate that our Welcome Home movement has had any questionable attachment to the tail of the kite, but the affair was conceived in good faith by some of our best citizens and if they erred in any particular it was in their enthusiasm for what they believed to be pro bono publico.

LABOR AND BOLSHEVISM

A movement to bring about the overthrow of the United States government was revealed yesterday by Hugh J. Frayne, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor, testifying at the opening session of the Lusk Committee appointed by the New York legislature to investigate Bolshevism.

"Certain elements," said Frayne, "are scheming for the overthrow of this government by the use of force and violence."

The witness absolved the A. F. of L. from any complicity in this movement. It was engineered solely by the extreme radical elements of the labor movement, he said. These elements he divided into three classes—anarchists, sydicalists and Socialists.

"The American Federation of Labor is as nearly 100 per cent loyal to the country, as it is possible to be," he added, "and it opposes as a matter of general principle any movement that has for its purpose the destruction of the fundamentals of our government."

The principles of the American Federation of Labor are the same as required of all good citizens, and the people of the United States will rejoice to learn that they are one hundred per cent loyal to the country.

But history often repeats itself. A century and a quarter ago the people of France arose in their majesty against the tyranny of the Bourbons. They had suffered long and patiently, hoping that time would bring relief from the burdnes the third estate (or working classes) were bearing daily. The Girondists, the reformers of those days, were not regicides nor anarchists in any sense. They merely desired better conditions. They believed in the maxim "Live and let live." The Girondists manifested sufficient power to force certain changes upon the throne, but while they were approaching the pinnacle of their career the Jacobins, the cut-throats of the French revolution managed to climb into the saddle, and thousands of Girondists perished, their only crime being their loyalty and conservatism.

While the American Federation of Labor is expressing its loyalty to their country, and showing a readiness to observe all laws, another organization as workingmen are endeavoring to pull the pillars from our Temple of Liberty. Is this horde of murderous fanatics destined to get on top in the United States? Should the unlikely happen, loyal members of the Federation of Labor might be treated as were the Girondists of old by these scourages of civilization.

LOOK OUT FOR LITTLE ONES.

That parents should be instructed to teach their children not to make the streets a playground, was a resolution adopted yesterday at a meeting the Safety First Association in the Public Library, in Washington.

While little ones in Alexandria are tempting Providence daily and nightly, this procedure has been greatly in evidence during the present week, while we have been celebrating Welcome Home Week. Early in the night thousands of small boys and girls gather on King and Washington streets, while the electric trains are picking their way, moving slowly and cautionsly and sounding their whistles at short intervals. The streets are filled with automobiles, the chauffeurs of which act with equal caution, and while, fortunately, no accident has occurred during the week there is no telling how soon something distressing will occur.

Children, some two and three years old, stagger from curb to curb, unconscious of the danger which besets them. It is hoped that the above hint will be acted upon by parents and others having charge of children. "Safety First" should be their watchword.

Turning little ones loose on the streets to take care of themselves is a practice that cannot be too strongly denounced.

THE LATE JOHN C. SPOONER

When John C. Spooner, now dead in New York, resigned from the United States Senate in 1907 he was weary of politics and longed to regain the persnal independence that the practice of his profession promised him. So long as he held public office he was unsparing of himself and at great self-sacrifice applied to his duties in Washington all his energies and talents. The obligations imposed upon him were the heavier because of his pre-eminent ability. No member of the Senate at that time outranked him as a debater, as a constitutional lawyer and as a master of practical statesmanship. The influence that he exercised in shaping the legislative policy of the country gave him a commanding position, and in every emergency it was to him that the leaders of his party looked for counsel and guidance.

Regardless of party differences, his associates, Republicans and Democrats, gladly yielded to him their admiration and friendship. The arts of the demagogue and the political trickster were wholly foreign to him, because from principle he lived up to the standards of conduct which we still like to believe are demanded of a member of the United States Senate.—(New York World.

NATIONAL AND RED CROSS ASSISTANCE

(Communicated)

"Nothing extenuate nor aught set down in malice"

Readers of the Gazette of good memory no doubt recall in its columns from time to time reference has been made to amounts expended in Alexandria by the United States Public calth Service and the American Red Cross. One would naturally infer or conclude from these statements that Alexandria was a recipient of charity or bounty from these two sources. Not in any way questioning the statement, or any others relating to the business of his office by the genial and pleasant officer at the head of the National and Local Health service, yet I desire to quote from the Gazette this; "Dr. Sandidge, among other things, told Council that the United States Public Health Service and the American Red Cross had spent $25,000 in Alexandria since last summer in sanitation."

If I have a patriotic second, I will move that when we have further repetition of those statements that the fact be emphasized that the United State's Public Health Service and the American Red Cross employes are paid, the first from taxes levied and collected by the federal government, and the Red Cross employees from the voluntary contributions of the people. To these two sources, the writer, with millions and millions of his countrymen, contribute. Alexandria only receives what it is entitled to, perhaps not that much.

As to any assistance, in times of distress, we are willing to be helped, as in time of need we have helped others. There is more or less selfishness in this world. "The laborer is worthy his hire," that is if he earns it. ne can reasonably assume that employees of the government, military or civil, and those employed in the Red Cros's work, are paid for their services as others who give their talent, time and energy to their business, and deserve to be.

If I am wrong in my conclusion like the man from Missouri, show me!

IMPORTANT QUESTION

Situs of Taxation for Deceased Person's Intangibles is His Last Domicile, Tribunal Holds

The distribution of taxes, amounting to nearly $9,000, between the State and county, and settlement of a mooted question relating to the situs of taxation for intangible property left by a deceased person result in an opinion handed down yesterday by the Supreme Court of Appeals at Wytheville, affirming the judgment of the Circuit Court of Culpeper ounty, in the case of the executors of John F. Rixey against the Commonwealth.

The taxes on the property were due for the years 1911 to 1917, inclusive, and were placed on the books by W. C. Williams, examiner of records for the Eighth Judicial Circuit, the executors of the estate, John S. Barbour, and the Virginia Trust Company, holding that the property was not taxable in this State.

John S. Barbour and the Virginia Trust Company took the position that they were holding the estate of Mr. Rixey, not as trustees, though a large part was held for deferred distribution, but as executors. In that case, the situs of taxation would be the residences of the beneficiaries, who are scattered in many places outside the State.

The court held essentially as follows:

The situs for taxation for intangible property belonging to the estate of a deceased person, and still in the hands of his executors, is at the last domicile of the deceased person, even though the executors are clothed with authority as trustee and directed by the will to hold the principal for a certain period and pay over the income therefrom to nonresident beneficiaries.

John F. Rixey who at one time represented the 8th Virginia District in Congress, died in 1907, leaving an estate of $112,000, besides several farms.

JESS' WORKOUTS LACK ZIPPY PEP

Champion Willard Works Slowly With Sparring Partners

Toledo, Ohio, June 13.—There is a vast difference in the methods used by Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard, in their efforts to get into condition. Jess Willard goes along very slowly, with his sparring partners, does his shadow boxing as if it hurts him and goes through other performances with the same amount of pepper.

Dempsey shadow boxes like the wind, hammers the daylights out of a punching bag, skips the rope, wrestles and does everything else with a zippy pep that is refreshing after one has stood watching Willard.

The referee argument has calmed down until it is barely heard now. Chances are no referee will be named until about a week before the date of the fight.

Not only bcause Jack Kearns will say nothing until then, but also because Rickards favors it.

Sailor Keetchel, of New York, is the lateest addition to Willard's training camp. Ketchel, who is just out of the navy, arrived here late today and will probably work out with the champions on Friday.

Willard worked six rounds with his sparring partners, Jack Hempel and Walker Monahan, here today.

SEE WILSON, WETS ARE TOLD

House Committee Gives Protestants Scant Comfort

Washington, June 13.—Advocates of repeal of war time prohibition appeared yesterday before the House Judiciary Committee, were told by Representative Dyer, Republican, of Missouri, that if they want relief they should appeal immediately to President Wilson.

Mr. Dyer said he had received no reply to his cable to the President urging him to issue a proclamation declaring the war time act void.

The war-time act was characterized by Mr. Dyer as "a fake and fraud on the people" inasmuch as it did not give men engaged in the liquor business time to adjust their affairs and seek other employment.

Clarence Wilson, representing several temperance organizations, said they wanted enforcement of prohibition lodged with the Department of Justice instead of the Treasury, and a prohibition commissioner appointed in the event that the Attorney-General regarded it as necessary.

RACE RIOTS IN ENGLAND

Houses of Negroes Burned And Looted

London, June 13.—Serious race riots occasioned by the presence of negroes brought from Africa and other parts of the world during the war as labor battalions, have occurred at several ports in England and Wales recently. They culminated in a night-long fight Wednesday night between negroes and white men at Cardiff and Barry dock, near by.

One white man was killed and numerous whites were wounded. Boarding houses in the negro quarter were stormed, one of them set on fire and others looted.

Yesterday morning negroes armed with revolvers fired on the police in Liverpool, where similar scenes occurred. The local authorities have asked for Government aid.

COUNSEL FOR DRY BOARD

Richmond, Va., June 13.—Lewis M. Machen, director of the State legislative reference bureau, was last night named general counsel for the State prohibition commission. He leaves the present position on June 19. It is understood Governor Davis will name C. M. Morrissette, of Lynchburg, to the research position.

PEOPLE FORGET TO VOTE

Four-Fifths of Voters Failed to Avail Themselves of Franchise Rights

Suffolk, Va., June 13.—Dr. L. C. Brock was Wednesday re-elected Mayor of Smithfield, and J M. Chapman, treasurer, in a municipal election, which was so quietly held that more than four fifths of the people forgot to vote, only 29 votes being cast in the whole town.

DRY VENGEANCE

Temperance Forces Want "Intoxicating" Term All-Inclusive

The most drastic enforcement of prohibition yet suggested was urged upon the House Judiciary Committee yesterday by leaders of the dry forces.

They recommended that the term "intoxicating" as contained in the constitutional amendment, should be defined so as to include all alcoholic liquors.

Another drastic proposal was that American citizens residing abroad should be denied the protection of the United States flag when they set up a business that has been outlawed in this country.

These views were submitted by Dr. Clarence. True Wilson, representing the the board of temperance of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the form of a memorial to the committee from seven national temperance organizations.

The memorial further asked that the enforcement of prohibition be placed under the Department of Justice, and that a prohibition commissioner be appointed to supervise the enforcement of the law, if it should meet with the approval of the Attorney General.

"The greatest friends the liquor people have had have been those in the revenue collecting agency," said Dr. Wilson. "The men whose business it is to deal with the liquor people have come to be their greatest defenders."

SPLITS TREATY FROM LEAGUE

Knox Resolution Reported to Senate by Foreign Relations Committee by Vote of 8 to 7

The Knox resolution demanding the separation of the league of nations from the peace treaty was reported to the Senate by the Foreign Relations Committee yesterday with a majority vote in favor of its passage.

Section 5 of the resolution, proposing that the United States should pledge assistance to the allied nations in the event of another European war, was stricken out by the committee.

Senator Knox will call up the resolution next Tuesday for consideration. There is no means of determining when it may be brought to a vote, as the debate is likely to be extended over a long period of time.

Supporters of the President believe that when the treaty is officially transmitted to the Senate the President will accompany it with an elaborate message, explaining all the details and the reasons for the specific treaty provisions. Such a message, they believe, would cause the Senate to reverse itself, even if the Knox resolution should have been passed in the meantime.

DETECTIVES RAID NEW YORK REDS

New York, June 13.—Business was "interrupted" yesterday afternoon at the headquarters of the Russian Soviet Bureau when a squad of detectives invaded the offices and took possession of all the records and served subpoenas on A. K. S. Martens, head of the Soviet embassy, and four of his assistants to appear as witnesses before the Lusk committee which opened its investigation of Bolshevism in the City Hall today.

The men subpoenaed with Martens were: A. A. Heller, I. A. Hourwich, S. Nuorteva and Gregory Weinstein, each of whom, according to Sidney R. Fleisher, their attorney, were heads of departments of the Soviet Bureau.

Among those caught in the net was John Reed, erstwhile consul general of the Bolshevist government in the United States.

SHRINERS MEETING GOES TO PORTLAND

Indianapolis, Ind., June 13.—Portland, Oregon, yesterday was awarded the national convention of Shriners for 1920.

The Oregon city obtained this concession from the imperial representatives who went into session at 9:30 a. m., following a hot fight between A. Kader Temple of Portland and the Jerusalem Temple of New Orleans at the national convention in session here.

RUNS INTO LANDSLIDE

Two Men Missing; Cars Burn; Engine Leaps Into James River

Lynchburg, Va., June 13.—A landslide occurring just ahead of an East bound fresh meat train on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, sixteen miles west of here early yesterday, caused the derailment of the engine and ten cars, the locomotive going into the James River.

Firemen Frank Walker and Brakeman Thomas Hulligan are missing and Engineer Thomas Jeter was brought here instantly injured All three trainmen live at Clifton Forge. The wreck tore down all telegraph wires and several refrigerator cars of Western meats were burned.

U. S. TITLE TO FOE SHIPS MENACED

Paris, June 13.—America's title to interned German ships appears today to be somewhat endangered.

Complications in the shipping question, which appeared easily solvable six weeks ago, are tying up the final award to America. These disputes involce France, Italy, Japan, and Bravil.

Italy apparently is providing the chief obstacle, though without furnishing any reason. Signatures of the British and French were obtained several weeks ago to an agreement for the ships seized in her ports. Italy also announced her readiness to sign, but when it came to affixing her signature she always held off on some pretext or another without denying the propriety of America's position.

France signed the agreement, contingent on being allowed to buy a number of German ships interned in Brazil. But Brazil asked all cash for the ships, while France wanted to pay part cash and part in securities, Japan is withholding her assent unti larrangements are made for her to obtain a certain amount of tonnage from America, which is expected to be easily arranged. Great Britain, meanwhile, is standing on the agreement, despite the protest of British commercial interests.

Portugal is now presenting claims for a part of the German navy as reparation for her naval losses. The general understanding is that Portugal's losses were limited to a few mine sweepers. but her claims include light cruisers. destroyers and various othe rcraft.

FIREMEN THREATEN STRIKE

Jacksonville Is Offering $5 Per Day To Men Who Will Remain Loyal

Jacksonville, Fla., June 13.—With Fire Chief T. W. Haney in charge of a recruiting office for the fire department and many men applying for positions, indications are that the fire men's strike which has been ordered will not affect the efficiency of the local fire-fighting organization. The city is offering emergency firemen $5 a day and assuring permanent positions to men who qualify as efficient and loyal.

Local underwriters Wednesday announced their confidence in the ability of the city to handle the situation, and declared there would be no cancellation of insurance or increase in rates.

ONLY THREE OPERATORS STRIKE IN BALTIMORE

Baltimore, June 13.—Three telegraph operators in Baltimore obeyed the national strike order Wednesday That's all that happened. Business went on as usual, except for a slight delay in messages over the Postal Telegraph Company's wires. Baltimore scarcely knew there was a telegraphers' strike.

The three operators who quit were members of the Postal Company's forces. J. A. Vogt, local manager for the Postal, said they were extra hands, recently brought to Baltimore from the South, and the fact that they walked out didn't make a bit of difference to the local office.

SENTENCED TO 15 YEARS

Slayer Confessed Crime Soon Afterward, But Was Forced to Serve Term in Virginia

Reading, Pa., June 13.—For the murder of Gordon Kauffman, of this city, almost eight years ago, Joseph Winsey, alias Joseph H. Carey, Wednesday was sentenced to 15 years in the Eastern Penitentiary, having entered a plea of guilty of murner in the second degree. His pals, John Lutz, Chester Lewzewski and William Schmitz, whom he exonerated from blame in the shooting and who pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary in which Winsey also figured, were sentenced to from 5 to 10 years on each indictment, to be served successively.

The murder of Kaufman came as a climax to a series of burglaries that aroused the city and county in the fall of 1911. On November 10, 1911, about 4:30 in the morning, Winsey, Lutz, Lewzewski and Schmitz entered the baker shop of Kauffman and asked for some apple pies. After they received the pies they crowded toward the door, preparing to leave without paying for them. Mrs. Kauffman stamped on the floor to attract the attention of her husband, who was in the basement working. He rushed up the cellar steps leading to the sidewalk, but before he could utter a word a revolver shot silenced him.

The quartet fled and the crimes ceased. Nothing was heard of the four until a few days afterward, when four young men were arrested at Petersburg, Va., for highway robbery, and because of their youth, were sentenced to 12 years in the penitentiary. Sheriff Merkel, then county detective, went to Richmond and obtained confessions from the four that they were guilty of the Kauffman murder and of various hold-ups.

Numerous attempts were made to extradite them, but the Governor of Virginia refused to consider the matter. Last March they were pardoned by the Governor and immediately brought to Reading. Winsey shouldered the blame for shooting Kauffman, while the others confessed to burglaries at Hainleys hotel, Sinking Spring, and at Fritz's hotel, Angelica At the latter place they made the proprietor open his safe at the point of a pistol.

"Gets-It" Peels My Corns Off!
Any Corn or Callus Comes Off Peacefully, Painlessly. Never Fails.
It's almost a picnic to get rid of a corn or callus the "Gets-It" way. You spend 2 or 3 seconds putting on 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It," about as simple as putting on your hat. "Gets-It" does away forever with "contraptions," "wrappy" plasters, greasy ointments that rub off, blood-letting knives, and scissors that snip into the "quick." "Gets-It" eases pain. Your "jumpy" corn shrinks, dies, loosens from the toe. You peel the corn painlessly from your toe in one complete piece. That's where the picnic comes in—you peel it off as you would a banana peel. Nothing else but "Gets-It" can do it. Get peaceful, common-sense "Gets-It." "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER

Four Employees of the Washington Navy Yard Taken in Charge

Four arrests of employes of the Washington Navy Yard yesterday disclosed that Department of Justice agents have been quietly working there to suppress bootlegging.

The men taken into custody were employed in the tool shop, it is said, and while little excitement accompanied their arrest, the information that Secret Service men had been working among the force caused consternation

Commandant A. W. Grant said last night that he was unaware that the government agents had been working among the force sales in the yard.

It is understood that the Navy Department ordered the investigation and will continue the probe until the practice of bootlegging has been abolished.

This is the second time the Navy Department has ignored the local

FLEES WITH ARMY PAY

Lieut. Gottenkeine, Who Enlisted in West Was Native of Alsace

Coblenz, June 13.—Orders were issued at the headquarters of the Third Army for the arrest on a charge of Gotteneine, of the Fifth Field Artillery Regiment, who disappeared several days ago, with about 500,000 marks of army pay funds. Gottenkeine, who is a native of Alsace, enlisted at Fort Sill, Okla.

The missing lieutenant speaks German and, according to other information in the hands of the intelligence officers, it is believed at headquarters that he has reached or is endeavoring to reach unoccupied Germany.

Officers of the First Division say that Gottenkeine obtained the money supposedly to pay off the men of the Fifth Field Artillery. He disappeared soon afterward. It is reported that the missing officer has relatives in Germany.

of vie During the war conditions in the Southwest section of the District were such that Secretary Daniels deemed that a menace to the welfare of the navy personnel and detailed a force from the Navy Department to restore morale in that section. The conditions complained of were then speedily cleaned up.

Keep Your Rugs Like New

YOU can easily regain the original beauty and coloring of your rugs by applying occasionally a soft lather of 20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips. Let it remain for a few minutes, then remove with a stiff brush. Will not injure colors or fabric, as the Borax simply softens and loosens the dirt and the soap dissolves it away.

20 MULE TEAM BORAX SOAP CHIPS

will also make laundry work easy if used in this way: Make a Soap Jelly by putting three tablespoonfuls of the chips into a quart of water and boil.

Add enough of this solution to the wash water to make a good suds and then sock or boil clothes as usual. Don't rub; it is unnecessary. An 8 oz. package of 20 Mule Team Borax Soap Chips equals 25c worth of ordinary laundry soap.

It's the Borax with the soap that does the work.

MAY GET STATE OF LIBERTY

Richmond Man Arouses Travelers Protective Association to Taking ecisive Action

New Orleans, June 12.—Launching of a movement for the erection at Hampton Roads of a sister monument to the Statue of Liberty, the ordering of a cablegram to President Wilson to express their confidence in him at the peace conference and the adoption of resolutions condemning Bolshevism and favoring that Count von Bernstorff be brought to the United States for trial, were the outstanding features of the Travelers Protective Association of America in session here late yesterday.

The suggestion of W. B. Cridlin, of Richmond, Va., chairman of the press committee, for a campaign for funds through councils of defense and other organizations to place a national monument at Hampton Roads was approved by the body.

When the Alabama division proposed a resolution indorsing the league of nations, it was voted down as several members voiced it, How can the T. P A. indorse something Congress knows nothing about?

More than a thousand delegates sprang to their feet and sang the Star-Spangled Banner, when Sam L. Harbison, of Texas, proposed the Bernstorff resolution.

Portland, Ore, Delegates claim practically to have won the next convention over Louisville and Oklahoma City.

GERMANS MOVE MATERIAL

War Munitions Taken Further From Occupied Territory

Coblenz, June 13.—The movement of war material by the Germans from territory beyond the occupied areas continues, according to German newspapers. The beginning of this withdrawal was made several weeks ago when there was a hitch in peace negotiations. The withdrawal of troops from various sectors opposite the Allies' bridgehead is also reported.

Several days ago the removal of material from the Frankfort area began. The most of this material is going in the direction of Cassel, but there are no indications that it is being unloaded there, that city being on a line over which the Americans would advance should the Allies be ordered to move further into Germany. Beyond the Coblenz bridgehead much war material has been withdrawn for a distance of more than 60 miles. In the Ruhr district the military retirement is virtually complete.

According to German newspaper industrial plants ,banks and civilians east of the Allies' bridgeheads are making preparations for eventualities in case Allied forces move eastward. It is reported that schools have postponed examinations which were scheduled for this week.

LOOT BANK IN DAYLIGHT

St. Louis Robbers Captured After Wounding Two Policemen

St. Louis, June 13.—Four men robbed the Meramec Trust Company Bank here at 2 p. m. yesterday of $20,000. Three of the robbers were after captured after they had shot and fatally wounded two policemen and slightly wounded a 13-year-old girl. The $20,000, packed in a suitcase, was recovered about 100 feet from the bank.

Three small boys gave the alarm of the robbery and when the bandits appeared with their loot, a posse of citizens began shooting. The robbers sped past their waiting automobile and took refuge in a house five blocks away. Patrolmen Smith and Ward followed them into the house. Ward's body was later found in the basement and Smith was shot three times, once through the head, the optical nerve being severed, blinding him. One robber, who deserted the others hid in a lot coverd with weeds and later made his escape.

The robbers in packing the suitcase with loot overlooked $50,000 in currency lying in plain sight and packed $1,200 in silver dollars along with other currency and Liberty bonds. As they fled from the bank the straps on the suitcase broke, letting the money roll into the street. They dropped the suit-case and fled. Two of the robbers commandeered a hucksters wagon and started south on the run when one of the members of the posse shot the horse. This is the second bank robbery in St. Louis in four weeks.

Advertising is the certain, quick, and economical method of developing your business.

When you put the power of advertising promotion and its great economies back of your own business, you are also spreading the spirit of optimism and good will.

The U. S. Department of Labor urges all progressive merchants and manufacturers—in fact, all who have anything to sell—to advertise now and take advantage of the great market which exists at this time.

FEARS MORE RIOTING

Winnipeg Officials Abandon Plan to Resume Transit Service And Get Machine Guns

Winnipeg, Man., June 13.—Fear of renewed rioting led city officials yesterday to abandon their project to resume street car service. Strikers said they would "strenuously oppose" traffic resumption.

Labor leaders said the military authorities have received a large armored motor car and numerous machine guns.

Possible disintegration of the general strike was seen yesterday in the announcement by a military intelligence officer that several important arrests of "alleged agitators and trouble makers" may be expected by Saturday.

It was hinted the drastic deportation law enacted at Ottawa last week has been awaited by anti-strike leaders before beginning an offensive against undesirable aliens.

Ottawa, Ont., June 13.—Premier Borden announced yesterday the Canadian house will investigate Winnipeg riots.

Railway shopmen all over Canada threaten to strike Monday unless the railway war board grants their demands.

TO MEET WILSON

King of Belgium to Greet President at Adinkerke—Plan Tour of Battle Front

Brussels, June 13.—The official program for President Wilson's visit, beginning Saturday, as now planned, or on whatever date is finally agreed upon, is as follows:

King Albert will meet the President at Adinkerke, accompanying him on a visit to the Belgian front, including Nieuport and Ypres.

On the second day a reception will be held in the chamber of deputies at 10 o'clock. Addresses will be made by President Wilson, Foreign Minister Hymans and the president of the senate. Troops lining the streets between the Brussels' Palace and the National Palace will render honors to the party.

Following the reception, Minister Whitlock will give a luncheon to the President.

At 3 o'clock the President will go to the royal palace and receive the diplomatic corps, after which he will go to Malines and visit Cardinal Mercier, and later attended a concert.

In the evening President Wilson will be the guest of honor at a dinner in the Brussels Palace, at which there will be 200 guests, representing diplomatic, political, commercial and industrial circles.

The President will visit the devastated regions during the forenoon of the third day and will later lunch with the royal family. At 3 o'clock he will visit Louvian, returning to Brussels for a reception at the Hotel De Ville, and in the evening he will be the guest at a dinner given by Hymans, after which he will return to Paris during the night.

TO PURIFY THE DANCE

International Association Blames Wave of Vulgar Dancing on Song Writers

Atlantic City, June 13.—The International Association of Dancing Masters yesterday linked hands with ministerial associations and welfare organizations to purge public dancing of vulgarity.

By resolution, members in practically every big city in this country will be directed to assist in any campaign to this end.

The association claimed that the wave of indecent dancing sweeping over the country today, exemplified by such dances as "Shaking the Shimmy" "Discarding the Lingerie," etc., is directly due to the depravity of song writers. The indecent actions are encouraged by songs with suggestive titles and suggestive meanings shouted by "song boosters" in cabarets, with accompaniment of vulgar and lewd body movements, the delegates aver. They want numbers of this sort altogether under ban in public dancing academies.

The following resolution was adopted by the convention this afternoon. Association of Masters of Dancing are

"Resolved, That the International unalterably opposed to all styles and unalterably opposed to all styles and forms of vulgar and indecent dancing and that this association bend every effort to educate the public to proper forms of dancing and to encourage proper supervision of all forms of social dancing."

ORDERS FOR STRIKE

Over One Hundred Thousand Telegraphers Receive Mandate

Atlanta, Ga., June 13.—Official orders directing railroad telegraphers throughout the United States to discontinue handling Western Union and Postal Telegraph business after 6 a. m., Saturday, June 14, was received by railway telegraphers in the Southeast yesterday. The order affects 80,000 railroad operators and approximately 30,000 telegraph offices, according to union leaders.

Removal of Postmaster General Burleson is asked in a cable sent President Wilson today by the Atlanta Federation of Trades.

That the strikers are preparing for a long fight was indicated when strike leaders announced local drafts had pledged financial support for an indefinite length of time.

ANTI-JAP RIOTS IN CHINA

Tokio Orders Warships to Shanghai To Curb Movement.

Tokio, June 13.—Advices received here from China show that there has been serious spread of anti-Japanese agitation, especially in Shanghai Hangkow, Nanking and Canton, with indications that it may develop into a general anti-foreign movement.

Several warships of the Japanese-China squadron have been hurried to Shanghai. Shipping at Chinese ports has virtually ceased, owing to a boycott, resulting in great monetary losses to steamship companies and exporters.

IRISH OFFENDERS PUT IN ZOO CAGES

London, June 13.—The Daily News yesterday published a portion of what it declared was the report on Irish conditions submitted to President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and Premier Lloyd George by Edward Dunne, Frank Walsh and Michael Ryan. The report said:

"In the Mount Joy prison yards we found the highest political prisoners in cages like those in the Lincoln Park and Bronx Park zoos. Many were confined in narrow, unventilated, underground cells. Many had been confined for months, uniformed of the charges against them and denied the right of trial by jury.

"During the past few months at least ten prisoners have been killed by guards under circumstances approximating murder."

READY IF FOE BALKS

Paris, June 13—Marshal Foch and General Weygand had two conferences yesterday with Premier Clemenceau, at which they discussed the question of an immediate resumption of hostilities and a concerted advance by the Allies, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris.

The general opinion is, the writer adds, that Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau has committed himself too far to be able to sign the Treaty.

It is also believed that the Scheidemann Ministry will be swept away to make room for a Ministry of moderate Independent Socialists, which will be joined by Mathias Erzberger, chairman of the German Armistice Commission.

This Ministry, it is declared, would be disposed to accept the Allied conditions, which it probably would do about July 1.

Now Is the Time to Advertise

PRESENT ADVERTISERS — Increase your space.

PROSPECTIVE ADVERTISERS—Bring your plans to a head and start advertising immediately.

Advertising began as an afterthought of business, but became the forethought. Just as it was a part of the forethought of war that insured victory, so advertising must become the forethought of peace to insure prosperity.

Advertising Anticipates; Advertising Discounts; Advertising Compels. Advertising is the surest, quickest, and most economical selling force known to industry to-day.

The power of an idea multiplied in millions of minds moves governments—or goods—as the case may be.

The Department of Labor urges more advertising by merchants and manufacturers to insure the present prosperity of the Nation.
